Dwmu (feat. Anuka)

JPB

You and me
The thought of us
Keeps popping up in my dreams
You see
Can't get enough
You and me
When we touch
You knock me off of my feet
I think
I need your love

But every time
I imagine that you are mine
I don't want to open my eyes
'Cause I might not really see you (see you x2)
But every time
We getting on that bump and grind
And all of the stars align
My fantasy might come true
Don't wake me up x2
Don't wake me
Baby just let me stay
Here in your imagination
Don't make it go away
Don't wake me (wake me x2)

Me and you
The thought of us
Doing all the things that we do
So smooth (x2) don't need to rush (x2) (nah x3)
Me and you
When we touch
We be playing it cool
Blue, can you make me hush

But every time
I imagine that you are mine
I don't want to open my eyes
'Cause I might not really see you (see you x2)

But every time
We getting on that bump and grind
And all of the stars align
My fantasy might come true
Don't wake me up (don't wake me up x2)
Don't wake me
Don't wake me up
Don't wake me
Don't wake me up
(Don't wake me)
