

LONG WAY HOME

BÎ”DKÎ”RMÎ”

Oh, it's cold and lonely here
Here in this telephone booth
There's three sides to every story, baby
There's yours and there's mine and the cold, hard truth
I think there's something missing 'round here
I don't know where it's gone
But it's a long way back home
 The heat don't work
 The toaster don't work
 And the car don't work
 And I guess I know why
 This house don't work

And this dream don't work no more
 And lover, neither do you and I
I fall asleep with the colors flying
 Over sand and foam
But it's a long way back home
I know your heart is breaking
Maybe my heart's breaking, too
And it's a long way back home
 It's a long way back home
 It's a long way back home
