Red Rose

Marc Terenzi

Whatever I do
I'm in confusion
I'm thinking of you
You're always on my mind
It's so hard to live
Without an Illusion
I hope you forgive
The things that I've done

When I came home to you
I cried
I saw you sleeping alone
Then I

I put a red rose in your bed tonight
Won't say goodbye
'Cause you were meant for me
It's hard for me to say I'm needing you
I always do
you're the best part of my life
I won't say goodbye

Whatever you do
You're my decision
I'm always a few Steps right behind
I'm thinking of you
And I had a vision
Forever's for you
you can see it in my eyes

When I came home to you
I cried
I saw you sleeping alone
Then I

I put a red rose in your bed tonight
Won't say goodbye
'Cause you were meant for me
It's hard for me to say I'm needing you

I always do
You're the best part of my life
I won't say goodbye

You're the best part of my life
And I won't say goodbye
You're the best part of my life
I won't say goodbye

When I came home to you
I cried

I put a red rose in your bed tonight
Won't say goodbye
Cause you were meant for me
It's hard for me to say I'm needing you
I always do
You're the best part of my life
I won't say goodbye

I put a red rose in your bed tonight
