

Steady, Steady

The Crane Wives

Steady, steady.

You know when you're ready.

It's a long road walking into the sun.

The heat can make you lose your head,

Your sense of direction.

Steady, steady

I am ready

To be the one.I can take "for better," but "for worse" I can't condone

Most of all "for good" just makes me ache to be alone

Oh, oh

How long is forever?I'm swimming in this dress, a child in her mother's clothes

This ring around my finger's like a chain around my throat.

Are you so sure you've tamed me?Steady, steady

Know when you're ready

It's a long road walking into the sun

The heat can make you lose your head

Your sense of direction,

Oh, steady, steady

I am ready

To run.We talked about the west, 'bout packing up our lives and hopes.

Ain't it a shame with time, our dreams turn into jokes?

Oh, oh

I won't let that be us.Nostalgic for the good times, like our dreams walked out on us

Like we woke up in an empty bed, here and now and stuck.

Oh, oh

I'll chase them down alone.Don't just watch me go, you fool.

Run with me,

Keep up, keep up,

Keep up.It's not you I'm leaving,

Are you listening?

I just can't take the rut, the rut.I won't say "I do,"

Until you promise me

That though we gray,

We can stay young and wild and free,

Young and wild and free,

And if you can't,

Don't blame me

If you can't,

Don't blame me

If you can't
Don't blame meSteady, steady
 Know when you're ready
It's a long road walking into the sun
The heat can make you lose your head
 Your sense of direction
 Oh, steady, steady
 We weren't ready

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>