Take You Down

JLS

lets go!!she's looking in my eyes, why she flicking her hair back, her body starts to wine and she making it clear that,
she wants to put it on me, i shouldn't react cause, she wanna lock me up lock me upp p.go and lock me, throw away the key, said looking for my heart,
couldn't find it on eBay, tearing through the crowds, just to bring her closer, lights are going down, down, downi know that you want me, to yourself i'll be your one and only,
tonight,
no you wont be lonely,
when we dance i'll be loving you slowly, tonightand lets go at it, i'll play the fanatic, girl i wanna take you out, then take you down, be my rock star, chase like a cop car,
girl i wanna take you out, then take you down, waahoo, baby we can change roles, you can play my lover i can play yours, then lets go at it i'll play the fanatic, girl i wanna take you out take take you dowwnshes touching up my body, got it hotter than Venus, i whisper in her ear,
let her in on a secret,
she licking on her lips, cause i got her excited,
she wanna lock me up lock me up ppgo and lock me,
throw away the key,
said looking for my heart,
