Lowdown In The Street

Zz Top

Well there comes Lola, out of control
She just loves those Rhythm and Blues
And Miss Ivy will be arriving
In leopard skin tights she's willing to cruiseIt's a fiend scene and it happen 'bout once a week
So for crumb of some bread he will do your head
And get low down in the streetThere's Jimmy and Jojo, there's Kim and Keith
Way outside the eyes of cool
And sweet M.B. and there's little G.B.
Everybody wants to be their foolIt's a fiend scene and it happen here ev'ry week
So for crumb of some bread he will do your head
And get low down in the streetSome nights are lonely, some nights are lazy
But ain't nobody try and slip away
They'll make you loose, they'll make you crazy
You know what I mean, what you say, what you sayIt's a fiend scene and it happen 'bout once a week
So roam on in, it ain't no sin to get low down in the street
