Truest Love

Kim Lenz

You are my intoxicating wish
So much more to live for than my fist
If I want to breathe with you
Close my eyes and let you see right throughThat's a scary thing to do
It's the very thing I do
It's the very thing I do
It's the very thing I doPut me on a supersonic trip
Every time you wake me with your lips
If I want to bleed with you
Close my mouth and tell you that I doThe truest lies are few
The truest lies are few
The truest lies are few
But the truest love is you
