Sometimes The Light

Black Rebel Motorcycle Club

Sometimes the silence is all we know
You leave your picture we fall in love
When lines are memory we carry on
Sometimes the light turns out too bright

I love you so
I love you so
I love you so

Sometimes the fallen is all we know
I leave your picture inside the room
For I'll remember all we could
Sometimes the light turns out too bright

I love you so
I love you so
I love you so

Sometimes it's falling, I'll love you more
Sometimes it's falling, I'll love you more
Sometimes it's falling, on everyone
Sometimes it's falling, on everyone
Sometimes it's falling, on everyone
Sometimes the light turns out to shine
With everyone
With everyone
With everyone
With everyone
With everyone
