Need

Psychotic Waltz

needing, feeling alone light never seems to shine hiding under a stone now I understand that deep inside you need to make me feelsomething inside her she's closing the door screaming inside her smile she don't cry anymorefeeling her prayer, breathing her pain dreaming her tears gone by now she's out of the rain
you need to make me feelwords fly like missiles they're flying on now
. . . rest your mind, rest your mind . . .
