Acoustified

Adelphi

lets start fresh this time we've reached this point again you know ive waited for these days and weeks to end saddest playing so long as tears roll down your face i hear them too and im thinking about yousick of lonely skies and missing long goodbyes you know id die for one last phone call just to say goodnight i wanna tell you thati hope this song will remind you of the time we spent away your eyes and mine will only meet on better days i hope you know your home is here with me but for now ill miss the things that you appreciate in meill sleep next to the phone tonight your home is here with me your home is here with me ill sleep next to the phone tonight your home is here with me your home is here with me
