Game over she said i got a new friend and thats harder to face over the deep end its harder to sense she wanted to go homeGame over she said are you recieving the time that we spent has been decieving so were parting our ways with no regrets tonite because ive been doing fineso please dont leave me ive been feeling fine so stop wasting all your time dont decieve me ive been telling lies because ive been doing fine and if you dont believe me ive been feeling fine so stop wasting all your time so please dont leave me all nitecontrolling 2 player situation will surely result in hesitation continuing lives and continuing tries will surely result the situationSo game over she said the level needed for the time and the place has been defeated so dont blame its hard to believe it wsa love we had
