

You Remind Me Of You

Jack Johnson

Well, your mama made you pretty
And your mama made you sweet
Your daddy gave you daydreams
And more cushion in your seat
Your mama gave you those windows
To your beautiful soul
Your daddys got more love for you
Than you could ever know Yes you do now
Yes you do

Well your mama made a promise
That your daddys gonna keep
Forever how long
Your mamas going to love your
Daddy made you messy
And your mama made you neat
Forever how long your daddys gonna love your
Mama made a clone
So she wont be alone
When the boys and me are getting
So out of control Yes you do now
Yes you do

When you cry, when you cry
Well your mamas gonna dry your eyes
When you cry, when you cry
Well your mamas gonna dry your eyes
And your daddys surely gonna try
But only mamas gonna dry your eyes
But your daddys surely gonna try
