

Crisis Identity (live in Hamburg, 23.05.1998)

Oxymoron

you know my mind is twisted i'm struggling for control a discrepant identity but fused into a whole an hour one half takes hold of me the other it is gone and suddenly i'm turning crazed i'm an incalculable manwrong or right?
black or white?
[Chorus:]
you see..
i lost my identity
i'm getting schizophrenic
i lost my identitytwo voices ride me over but both are part of me i dance in daydreams on the verge of my insanity inside i'm getting nervous around me i cast a glance and have to watch my limbs behave as the dominant one wantsstrong or weak?
sane or sick?
