

Drink You Up

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I like the way you haven't shaved in a week how you don't have to speak and I know what you're thinkin' I like the way you feel, you're so strong you can stare at the sun without even blinkin' why'd you go and have to take my breath go and scare me half to death I like every little rip in your jeans the way you lookin at me When your supposed to be drivin, your eyes so wild and free like a big blue sea too deep to dive in you're like the best dream I've ever had i've never wanted anything so badi wanna drink you up I wanna drink you up
feel your fire on my lips every time we kiss yeah
come on baby fill my cup I wanna drink you up i like the way you turn the radio up the way you along, when you think I can't hear you I like the way you slip your hands through your hair like you just don't care I've gotta be near you cause close ain't close enough no baby I love you so damn much i wanna drink you up
I wanna drink you up yeah yeah yeah, oooooh, ooooooh feel your fire on my lips Every time we kiss

oh yeah
I wanna. Drink you up throw you back pour it on till every drop is gone
i wanna drink you up I wanna drink you up oh baby fill my cup
