Desire For Need

Seether

It's so depressing how you wag your tongue and maim with words as you please I'm second guessing you're the chosen one Think you can cure my disease you wear out and lay claim to my mind
get out
I'm begging you, please You're so excited to bleed
you've got me on my knees
betrayed desire for need
But i'm giving up
yeah i'm giving up
As a confession you reach for your gun then cry a hole in my sleeve It's overrated kissing you for fun Now all i taste is the sleaze
you wear out and lay claim to my mind
get out

I'm begging you, please You're so excited to breed
you've got me on my knees
betrayed desire for need
But i'm giving up
yeah i'm giving up
You've got me right where you want me
You've got me feeling so small
You've got me right where you want me
I'll never deliver myself (x2)
you wear out and lay claim to my mind
get out
I'm begging you, please
betrayed desire for need
But i'm giving up
yeah i'm giving up
But now i'll deliver myself
