Mirage

Tommy James

I see you standing in the alleys and the hallways
Wait a second, you're gone now
I run to touch you but you vanish through the doorway
And oh, how hard it is to live without youI love everything about you
Now I know you're really gone
But my imagination is so strong
That I see you coming into viewAnd your face is telling me that you
Oh yeah oh, want to be by my side
Oh yeah oh, now it's finally time
Wait a secondMirage, that's all you are to me
Mirage, something I only seeSo I keep walking through the alleys
And the hallways where are you
I keep remembering the kissing
In the doorways, the car too
How it all comes back to meThe movies every Saturday
The place we used to go to eat
I want so much to have it like it used to be
That I see you coming into viewAnd your face is telling me that you
Oh yeah oh, want to be by my side
Oh yeah oh, now it's finally time
Here it comes againMirage, that's all you are to me
Mirage, something I only seeJust a mirage, that's all you are to me
Just a mirage, something that I only seeJust a mirage, that's all you are to me
Just a mirage, something that I only see
