

Woes

The Great Discord

Why won't you wake up All cannot be lost hunching my shoulders Waiting for dusk to bring me home, Hardening of our hearts, and I know we'll never smile again
Wound will not be whole, and I know we'll never laugh again Open your mouth, close your mind
You were mine, I was yours (now lost but can't be found) Errors unavailing, sorrows and neglect Hardening of our hearts,
and I know we'll never smile again
Wound will not be whole,
and I know we'll never laugh again Hardening of our hearts,
and I know we'll never smile again
Wound will not be whole,
and I know we'll never laugh again
