

Karma

Kamelot

I am a king of honor
Gold and glory
But every king must also die
Have I been just and righteous What is glory
I know I've torn and taken life
And here I stand
A small and simple man Who will trade his karma for my kingdom
A sacrificial right to render truth
The fire in my soul rejects my wisdom
'Cause all you do in life comes back to you I am a king in crisis
Counting minutes
There is an ending to my reign
My sins have come to face me I can feel it
That I have lived my life in vain
And now I know I'll reap
The seeds I've sown Who will trade his karma for my kingdom
A sacrificial right to render truth
The fire in my soul rejects my wisdom
'Cause all you do in life comes back to you Am I mad
I feel so void and cold
Who can tell
Who holds the stories untold Tired and trembling
I am descending
Will I have to stay here
And live this life again
