Hello - Turn Your Radio On

Shakespear's Sister

Woke up this morning and the streets were full of cars
All bright and shiny like they'd just arrived from Mars
And as I stumbled through last nights drunken debris
The paperboy screamed out the headlines in the streetAnother war and now the pound is looking weak
And tell me have you read about the latest freak?
We're bingo numbers and our names are obsolete
Why do I feel bitter when I should be feeling sweet?Hello, hello, turn your radio on
Is there anybody out there?
Help me sing my songLa, la, la, life is a strange thing
Just when you think you learned how to use it
It's goneWoke up this morning and my head was in a daze
A brave new world had dawned upon the human race
Where words are meaningless and everything's surreal
Gonna have to reach my friends to find out how I feelAnd if I taste the honey, is it really sweet?
And do I eat it with my hands or with my feet?
Does anybody really listen when I speak?
Or will I have to say it all again next week?Hello, hello, turn your radio on
Is there anybody out there?
Help me sing my songHello, hello, turn your radio on
Is there anybody out there?
Tell me what went wrong
Oh, oh, oh ohLa, la, la, life is a strange thing
Life is a strange thingHello, hello, turn your radio on
Is there anybody out there?
Help me sing my song
Oh, oh, oh, ohLa, la, la, life is a strange thing
Just when you think you learned how to use it
It's gone
