

To Turn You On

Roxy Music

I could show you in a word if I wanted to
A window on a world with a lovely view
From close up inside a single room
With an open book aside, like you read in school
It's so easy, believe me
When you need fun
I do anything to turn you on
Anything to turn you on
Is it raining in New York on Fifth Avenue?
And off Broadway after dark, love the lights, don't you
I could walk you through the park
If you're feeling blue or whatever
Spring, summer, whenever, winter through fall
I'd do anything to turn you on
Anything to turn you on
I would leave you as you were if I wanted to
Then I wonder, is it fair now you're on your own
Who cares about you except me?
God help me when things go wrong
I do anything to turn
You must phone me, you know me
When things go wrong
I do anything to turn you on
