

One Fine Day

Anointed

Hey, oh, oh, one fine day I live my life a mile a minute, oh, yeah
Gettin' caught up in the rush
Lonely, broke and lost, I've been there, yes, I have
But, that won't matter soon enough no, no In my mind, I catch a vision of eternity
And how it's gonna be He's comin' back and I can't wait
I wanna see Jesus face to face
I believe it, I believe it, one fine day
He's gonna come shinin' through the clouds
Gonna come shout my name out loud
I believe it, yeah, I believe it
One fine day
He's coming back for me one fine day, yeah I'm talkin' happy ever after oh, yes
I'm talkin' twice upon a time
I know the only thing that matters, yeah
His heart is comin' back for mine
And I find a peace and joy in just imagining
And I find my hope in Him He's comin' back and I can't wait
I wanna see Jesus face to face
I believe it, I believe it, one fine day
He's gonna come shinin' through the clouds
Gonna come shout my name out loud
I believe it, yeah, I believe it
One fine day
He's comin' back for me, yeah I wanna be free enough to fly
I wanna be brave enough to try
I wanna be ready
Cause I believe it's true
We'll be there together
And he loves me forever
I think of one fine day
And I get carried away He's comin' back and I can't wait oh, yeah
I wanna see Jesus face to face
I believe it, I believe it
One fine day
He's gonna come shinin' through the clouds
Gonna come shout my name out loud
I believe it, yeah
I believe it, one fine day Back and I can't wait, oh
Wanna see Jesus face to face

I believe it
One fine day
Shinin' through the clouds
Shout my name out loud
I believe it, yeah, one fine day
One fine day
