

Ticket

Shiny Penny

I see it coming, my heart is palpitating
I can't shake the feeling swimming all under my skin
I feel the mystery of the surface almost breaking
And I just want my soul to win
You gave me hope but I'm still looking for the meaning
I feel that purpose but sometimes I don't feel strong
Though I keep on believing in a light that I can't see yet
I know you'll keep me holding on
I just want to tell everybody
    What I am all about
    That I've made it finally
    That I got my my ticket out
    Oh oh oh oh oh oh
    I'm feeling stronger now
    Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Just want my ticket out
So many times I take the long way just to take it
    I try so hard to stay away from what is wrong
    Still I'm not ready but I know that I will make it
I know you'll keep me holding on
I just want to tell everybody
    What I am all about
    That I've made it finally
    That I got my my ticket out
    Oh oh oh oh oh oh
    I'm getting stronger now
    Oh oh oh oh oh oh
Just want my ticket out
Oh 'cause
    Times keep changing
    Life keeps racing on
    And on
    Want to know I made it
When my days are gone
I just want to tell everybody
    What I am all about
    That I've made it finally
    I got my my ticket out
    Oh oh oh oh oh oh
    And I am stronger now
    Oh oh oh oh oh oh
