No Fiction

The Charlatans

There's one thing on my mind
I think I'll take a little walk in the wild
The feelings come and roll
Put it in your pocket and I'll save it
For another dayHey hey hey
Hey hey heyAnd life becomes my shield
And she becomes my life
Not afraid of too much livin'
I'm waitin' for the day I wanna see it
Wanna live it with a kissOne hundred planes with bombs
Couldn't turn your headlights on
No fiction roping you down
I know and feel what's going on
