

Old Man Kensey

R.E.M.

Old man Kensey wants to be a sign painter
First he's got to learn to read
He's gonna be a clown on TV
Flexes his elbow taunt and free
(That's my folly)
I believe Drink up the lake, Kensey's awake
(That's my folly)
That's my mistake Old man Kensey wants to be a goalie
First he's got to learn to count
He's gonna be a clown on a circus mount
Letters to be signed and dropped off
(That's my folly)
Kensey's going far John, Bill and Ed, stand on your head
(That's my folly)
I'm ready to go [Incomprehensible] Old man Kensey wants to be a dog catcher
First he's got to learn to stand
He's gonna be a clown in a marching band
Letters to be signed ransom greed
(That's my folly)
I believe Drink up the lake, John, Bill and Ed
(That's my folly)
That's my mistake Kensey's awake, stand on your head
(That's my folly)
I'm ready to go Drink up the lake, stand on your head
(That's my folly)
I'm ready to go
