

Wait

JP Cooper

I had a dream of you and I
Carried on waves of happiness
Opened my eyes and we're hanging on tight
To a sinken ship and I'm losing grip
Living on different frequencies
And I see you less frequently
Time after time we just passing the night
We're a sinking ship
We can't let go of it So I'll wait, wait a little longer
Yeah, I'll wait with the bruises and scars
And I'll wait 'til you a little stronger
'Cause together, together
Is tearing us apart
She said: Look at those cracks, won't you fix them up
And you did this to us, don't you dare give up
And oh, my arms are open
My heart is so tired
But I can't disconnect
When I wanna protect you So I'll wait, wait a little longer
Yeah, I'll wait with the bruises and scars
And I'll wait 'til you a little stronger
'Cause together, together We're not living our lives
And we're living a lie
Are we just chain and ball?
And caught up in the tide
If we gonna survive, gotta turn on the tides
Oh no, but until then
I will wait, wait a little longer
Yeah, I'll wait with the bruises and scars
And I'll wait 'til you a little stronger
'Cause together, together
I will wait, wait a little longer
Yeah, I'll wait with the bruises and scars
And I'll wait 'til you a little stronger
'Cause together, together
'Cause together, together
Is tearing us apart

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>