Shattered

Pink Cream 69

freeze a second, hold the moment stop the hand of time
just a word, a thought is spoken says my love was blindnow I stand all alone and wonder why there's tears in my eyes it's a spell that I been under once again - don't know whylisten up, you better not talk save your lies, I can't hear 'em no moreyou shattered my heart
you shattered my soul
shattered my pride
met your goal
you shattered my heart
scattered pieces
you shattered my soullisten up, you better not talk just shut up, go take a walk save your lies, I can't hear 'em no moreyou shattered my heart
reached your goal
you shattered my heart
scattered pieces
