

Until the Day Dims

The Woodlands

That day Saturday took us to your door
Sat in the kitchen with windows
Open so wide
Slowly candidly words were unfolding
Hands on the table and grasping
Comfort our souls

And we'll linger
Until the day dims
Suddenly leaves us
Then we'll go

And we'll linger
Until the night falls
Flooding the sidewalks
Then we'll go

We tried not to collide with the moment
Wear it away like a photograph
Yellow with time
Young spring it can be fleeting we gather
Holding the tones of our laughter
Filling the room

And we'll linger
Until the day dims
Suddenly leaves us
Then we'll go

And we'll linger
Until the night falls
Flooding the sidewalks
Then we'll go

Oh oh oh ohhhh
Oh oh ohhhh
Oh oh ohhhh
Ohhhh

And we'll linger

Until the day dims
Suddenly leaves us
Then we'll go

And we'll linger
Until the night falls
Flooding the sidewalks
Then we'll go
