

We Missed You (Re-Recorded)

Kitty Wells

We missed you and we're glad you'll come home
The hours were never so lonely, my eyes were never so strange
From watching and waiting and crying for you
And hoping you'd come back again Me and my heart and my lips and my arms
We missed you each day you were gone
Me and my heart and my lips and my arms
We missed you and we're glad you'll come home A hope against hope you still love me
There were so many memories I care
And though you had gone many miles from my side
My love followed you every step Me and my heart and my lips and my arms
We missed you each day you were gone
Me and my heart and my lips and my arms
We missed you and we're glad you'll come home
