

When I Dream I See

Mighty Oaks

Oh I'm screaming out because I'm lost in a city on the westside.
And you got me crying out oh you left me and I'm looking for a reason why. And when I dream I see my mother's eyes because she raised me.
And in my father's steps I go, to a goal that's unknown. And these roads they seem to curve for miles
And I know not what lies around the bent
And I have been known to crash at times and I rely on the love from my friends. And when I dream I see my mother's eyes because she raised me.
And in my father's steps I go, to a goal that's unknown.
And when I dream I see my mother's eyes because she raised me.
And in my father's steps I go, to a goal that's unknown.
