Sophie So

Hippo Campus

you came back, you wanted a piece of my heart, oh my love you said you were clever, but clever is never enough a tremble a shiver, the patience is something you lack disastrous, and matchless, the shivers that drip off your back try to repair, what you never quite see the reason you spoke up, but never had given to me all gone, are you ever really here all gone, are you got-got-got you, sophie so got-got-got you you came back, you wanted to see through my two colored eyes you left me at home with a down-trodden handful of sighs
all gone
are you
you came back, you wanted
you came back, you
