

East Of Eden

Enchant

I'll soon use my hands
To carve paths through this caged world
 Locked up by them
 I must hold my courage
Whether their kind will ever give
Whether in life they'll ever live
 Flaming eyes burn far above
 A candle's glow
 Naked to myself
 Chained to change
 One day see the light
 As I grasp for this
 My world
 my joy
 Purged of its life
They will seek their reward
 Leading them on...
They'll bleed they own hearts
 Steal my world
Asserting that I must sanction worse
 Flaming eyes burn far above
 A candle's glow
 Naked to myself
Chained to change[Music: Benignus,P.Craddick,D.Ott,B.clime]
