

Urtical Gods

Enslaved

Activate the aggression that exposes the hidden
Denying the existence of praying to illusions
Seek gnosis in the forbidden
Drink from the wates of knowledge
And see what lies you breathe Absorb the vital spark of deities false
And resurrect the true gods
To whom strength and wisdom is the key And not the lectures of folly
Anoint your soul with pleasure
Apposed to mummification through impotence The truth is unconscious, asleep
Waiting to be summoned, to be worshiped
A neglected phallus banished from thought A weapon overseen by the creator
But cherished by those of the path
Unlock the beast transform Ahdisdaataatwabut
