

Whining

The Planet Smashers

I can't get the movie I want
The cool video store's too far away
It's raining out so I'll have to put up with Blockbuster one more day And sit through another plot
Chopped up letter boxed on my twelve inch screen
Tomorrow I'll continue with the same thing again
And I wish my life was effort free Whining for what I want
Trying is just too hard
Trying is just too hard
Whining for what I want I can't get the record I want
The indie shop's too far away
My brother lives in the city
He said he's going to tape it for me someday In the meanwhile, I'll listen to myself complain
Tomorrow, I'll continue with the same thing again
And what ain't right if you ask me
The best things in life you should come more easily Whining for what I want
Trying is just too hard
Trying is just too hard
Whining for what I want Whining for what I want
Trying is just too hard
Trying is just too hard
Whining for what I want Whining for what I want
Trying is just too hard
Trying is just too hard
Whining for what I want
