

Breaking up My Bones

Vinyl Theatre

You've got a funny way of hanging around
A thief in the modern age of rhythm and sound
Take me to another place where clarity's found
'Cause all I hear is noiseIt's breaking up my bones

I wanna lie, but I don't care to try

We're taking off

We're taking off, baby

We're taking off

I know you knowYou found another way to keep me around

I dreamt of a thousand ways to alter the sound

A thief in the modern age of rhythm and sound

But all I hear is noiseIt's breaking up my bones

I wanna lie, but I don't care to try

We're taking off

We're taking off, baby

We're taking off

I know you knowSo many times we're staring down the barrel of a gun

I know you care these open eyes stareIt's breaking up my bones

I wanna lie, but I don't care to try

We're taking off

We're taking off, baby

We're taking off

I know you knowIt breaks up my bones

This breaks up my bones
