

Nicotine

Haymaker

I can't break nicotine
Tried twice on Halloween
Had kindness come to me
It was the greatest

She held me under her wing
And choirs began to sing
That devil costume was my thing
She was a princess

She was a princess

I'm thinking of therapy
My life's a catastrophe
My motto "better you than me"
Yeah

My body is mad at me
A price for serenity
A brickman is perjury to a rock
I can't talk, but uh,

She was a princess

I can't break nicotine
Tried twice on Halloween
That devil costume was my thing,,,

I've got a habit; I've got to have it
