Day to Day

Lacey Brown

It seems to me, everyone's working
Hoping they'll cease their day
Trying to working as hard as they can
So their families would do the sameIt seems to me, everyone's waiting
Waiting for their hearts to heal
They get them away too early
Before they were ever ready
Ready to feel, ready to feelGive me fire, give me rain
Give me passion, give me pain
Give me love that's worth living
Day to dayGive me fire, give me rain
Give me passion, give me pain
Give me love that's worth living
Day to day, todayIt seems to me, everyone's laughing
Just to cover up their tears
They want to mask the honest men
And away you really fellsIt seems to me, everyone's telling
Tell the stories you love to hear
I've got mine, I've got mineGive me fire, give me rain
Give me passion, give me pain
Give me love that's worth living
Day to dayGive me fire, give me rain
Give me passion, give me pain
Give me love that's worth living
Day to dayGive me fire, give me rain
Give me passion, give me pain
Give me love that's worth living
Day to dayGive me fire, give me rain
Give me passion, give me pain
Give me love that's worth living
Day to day, today
