

Carry You

Fire Theft (The)

Green river flows
like grass melting
later it will flow back down it's track into an ocean.

She stands on the bridge
dimlight on the back

Someday

I will carry you

I want to float higher

above waves of electric wires stare down onto the street
see a drunk with kiln-glazed eyes telling me about a girl I should meet

Someday

I will carry you
