

Wonderful Life

Michael Ruff

Make me laugh when things get strange
There is always room for humor in a crazy world
Be a mother to your faithful misbehavers

Let me hold you when you need someone
There is still compassion in a selfish world
There are angels standing by
To hear you, so have a cry
And weâ€™ll have one in your honor tonight
Wonderful life

Let the chord ring out a little longer
There is always time for music in a noisy world
There are angels standing by
To sing with you, so let it fly baby
And weâ€™ll sing one in your honor tonight
Wonderful life

The changes used to roll right off me, like water
Now thereâ€™s a hill I must climb
So Iâ€™ll climb, Iâ€™ll climb

Break out every decoration in the house
You were always bringing flowers to a needy room
And all your friends are standing by
To hold you up and see you shine

As we have one in your honor
Weâ€™ll have one in your honor, my friend
As you take your place of honor tonight
Wonderful life
