What If

Plain White T's

What if nobody likes me, what if I don't succeed?
What if I give it all that I've got
And I still don't got what they need?
What if I don't get anywhere at all?
Will I consider myself a failure, will I be that small?What if she doesn't like me, what if I'm not her type?
What if all the girls that ever like me
Are not the kind of girls that I like?
What if I meet the right one and screw it up
Will I consider myself a failure, will I give up?I'm gonna keep trying, getting denied just makes me want it more
I'll keep trying and each time push harder than before
I can't live my life always worried about what if
'Cause what if I die tomorrow then I never even lived?What if they don't like me, what if they think I'm a joke?
What if they act nice to my face
But they hate me and I don't even know?
What if they end up stabbing me in the back?
Will I consider myself a failure or will I fight back?I'm gonna keep trying, getting denied just makes me want it more
I'll keep trying and each time push harder than before
I can't live my life always worried about what if
'Cause what if I die tomorrow then I never even lived?What if nobody likes me, what if I don't succeed?
What if I give it all that I've got
And it's not good enough till I bleed?
What if I don't get anywhere at all?
Will I consider myself a failure, will I be that small? NoI'm gonna keep trying, getting denied just makes me want it more
I'll keep trying and each time push harder than before
I can't live my life always worried about what if
'Cause what if I die tomorrow then I never even lived?I'm gonna keep trying, getting denied just makes me want it more
(Makes me want it more)
I'll keep trying and each time push harder than before
(Harder than before)
I can't live my life always worried about what if
'Cause what if I die tomorrow then I never even lived?
(Never even lived)
