Embrace the World

Gojira

I sit on a rock cannot be touched by struggle & confusion I reclaim my space inside my structure look at this point all is about nothing, everything comes near the remotest parts of the worldby silence we can dissolve disruptive vibrations I have to try Gaa's alive for good under my feet the forest over me the largest It's roundness I feel Lifelong misery
How do we get to Avalon?
There is a bridge beyond indestructible the earth is a templeI cannot see what is wrong and All gods are oneI close my eyes I'm all around, I feel so present embracing it's vastness I hold facing the world
I become a part of it
I'm not alone anymoreI embrace the world
