Okay the asking who's this Hip Hop freak that be passing //
I'm laughing they think I'm something special cause I'm rapping //
Na ahhh
Let me tell you a little bit bout who I am //
You ain't heard about me alright I don't need new friends //
My pockets filled on a real talk
Rolling around feeling still strong //
Fire words that's real talk
And I stay focused stay drilling on //
Bass in the trunk like King Kong //
They want to see me signed so the deals on //
Catch me in that laboratory up in the booth and I riddle on //

[Verse #2: The Ridiculous Child]
I got two alter egos let me tell you what the name is //
Nili Reyy is the one that's going to make me famous //
The Ridiculous Child is the one whose kind of brainless
Soulless, ruthless in your motherfucking playlist! //
I see the gold and I chase it all

Like a untamed dog I'm going to break them off //
I'm talking ligaments, barbeque on stick season it hearing this //
I'm going to show you niggas' whos raw //
Waiting for a feature but you niggas' never called //
Always overlooked Nili so I chunk it up to yall //
Chucks! Give them my regards //
On the tour bus going to tour around you frauds //
They say I'm insane I stay in my lane
Success in my frame and we ready to ball //
Too Fresh is the name that's changing the game //
The Money gone come and we wanting it all //
Figure that!
Never slack is the goal it's the only way //
I'm a king you can tell by my middle name //
Never slow down for no one
I stay on top looking down on you fucking lames //

[Outro: Nili Reyy]
Hahaha! See I told you baby all you got to do is just ask!
I don't bite that hard, well the Ridiculous child does.. Haha
So when ever you see me just strolling around don't ask yourself.
