Cross-Eyed Mary

Jethro Tull

Who would be a poor man

A beggar man, a thief

If he had a rich man in his hand?

And who would steal the candy

From a laughing baby's mouth

If he could take it from the money man? Cross-eyed Mary goes jumping in again

She signs no contract

But she always plays the game

She dines in Hampstead village

On expense accounted gruel

And the jack-knife barber drops her off at schoolHey, laughing in the playground

Gets no kicks from little boys

Would rather make it with a letching gray, yeah

Or maybe her attention is drawn by Aqualung

Who watches through the railings as they playHey, cross-eyed Mary finds it hard to get along

She's a poor man's rich girl and she'll do it for a song

She's a rich man stealer but her favour's good and strong

She's the Robin Hood of Highgate

Helps the poor man get along, heyLaughing in the playground

Gets no kicks from little boys

Would rather make it with a letching gray, yeah

Or maybe her attention is drawn by Aqualung

Who watches through the railings as they playCross-eyed Mary goes jumping in again

She signs no contract

But she always plays the game

She dines in Hampstead village

On expense accounted gruel

And the jack-knife barber drops her off at schoolHey, cross-eyed Mary, oh baby, oh, cross-eyed Mary
