Love

Julia Fordham

(written by Julia Fordham)In my blood
You're in my bones
In a crowd
When I'm alone
There's nothing that I wouldn't do
I'd take a bullet for you
I'd walk a million miles
In anybody's shoes
Just to be with you
I'd cross the deepest ocean
I'd hold my breath
And I would swim against the tide
To be by your side
Love love love
Love love love
In my bed
On my phone
In my house
When I get home
That is where I want to find youChorusThe drug that's driving me
Picks me up and sets me free
There's nothing that I wouldn't do
Nothing that I wouldn't do
