Aroused

Tom Vek

You said only a backpage
Will get us read as a first page
Now you're observing the corners Showing the first signs of aging

I'm not trying to read you anymore
Just keep on turning you through the days Until the latest chapter unfolds

You look aroused
You look awake
You are the lie to deterrant dawn [not sure bout that last line]

A slumber will fall on you again but in your dreams you're being held underneath the elephants in the room you were trampled, stamped, beaten down and

You've broken all our hearts
You've broken all our hearts
But they no longer ache now
They don't hurt

You look aroused
You look awake
You are the lie to
deterrant dawn

(You look aroused)

You look aroused
You look awake
You are the lie to
deterrant dawn
