

Sunshine

Sworn In

You are not my sunshine
Not my sunshine
Not my sunshineDarling, You are not my sunshine
Not my sunshine
Not my sunshineBaby, You are not my sunshine
Not my sunshine
Not my sunshineSweetheart, You are not my sunshine
Not my sunshine
Not my sunshine
Leave me in hell to burn
I told you it's finally my turn
Let the fire eat my skin
The depression always wins
So I'll smile and laugh till my mouth is bloody
I just wish I knew how to connect with somebodyYou're not my sunshine
No, not my sunshine
You make me lose my mind every fucking day
You'll never know, dear
How much I hate you
So please, just stay the fuck away!The sun burns my skin
It makes me realize the darkness within
I think I'm sick because everything starts to spin
And you just watch me with that grin
You're not my sunshine
No, not my sunshine
You make me lose my mind every fucking day
You'll never know, dear
How much I hate you
So please, just stay the fuck away!Stay the fuck away!Can you see me?
Can you see me right here?
Begging for you
Begging for you to disappearSo fuck this life and fuck you too
Everything I've done has lead me to what I'm gonna do
Gun in my hand
I can't fucking stand it
I'm done, I'm done, I'm fucking doneSo fuck this life and fuck you too
Everything I've done has lead me to what I'm gonna do
Gun in my hand
I can't fucking stand it

I'm done, I'm done, I'm fucking doneYou're not my sunshine

No, not my sunshine

You make me lose my mind every fucking day

You'll never know dear

How much I hate you

So please, just stay the fuck away!Just stay the fuck away!
