She Dreams

Peter, Paul & Mary

She dreams, no one can hear her
If she cries, who will be there to care?She needs someone to believe her when she lies
When she pretends to shareShe sees other people bein' what it, what she thought, she ought to be
Other people fast pursuin' what she can't believe in
'Til she's free
'Til she's freeShe thinks that no one can see her
All that she can hide is what she's searchin' forShe sees other people bein' what it, what she thought, she ought to be
Other people fast pursuin' what she can't believe in
'Til she's free
'Til she's freeShe dreams, and waiting inside her when she wakes
All that she needs to know
