All In Your Hands

Framing Hanley

The guts it's taken you
Just to say what you mean
Let's do this right tonight
'Cause there's no in-betweenThe self deprecation of what you put your faith in
Has brought you to your knees
You're waiting at the starting line
What if the gun is empty?Run
Leave it all alone, just run
It's all in your hands, all in your hands
It's all in your hands, all in your handsThe questions never asked
You'll never find the answer
Waiting for the truth
Could become your cancerThat could form in ways in this tragic way
Have this stage set for a great ending
We're miles from the finish line
Is your heart worth defending?Run
Leave it all alone, just run
It's all in your hands, all in your hands
It's all in your hands, all in your handsWe've taken this, for way too long
We're taking this tonightLeave it all alone
It's all in your hands, all in your hands
It's all in your hands, all in your handsWe're taking this alive, we're taking this alive
You're standing at the finish line
We're taking this alive, we're taking this alive
Leave it all and run
