Bend or Break (Reinvented)

King the Kid

So here we are,
You spoke of it forever
But I'm not ready
For this just quite yetIt's been wrecking all our time
Shattering inside
A splinter in mind
That you'll leave behindNow everyone
Sees you like a feather
A fair-weather friend
In your own whirlwindIn your selfishness, nothing can get through Nothing that I say, nothing that I doYou know I'm not lost,
I'm gonna break through
I know, oohI'm all in
I'm in and won't lose
With this goodbye
I change my lifeI understand what's left behind
I see the love but I'm not blind
We gotta bend before we break
I'm walking the lineYou think a phone call is enough
To keep me satisfied
But I recognize we're on 2 wavelengthsIt's been wrecking all our time
Shattering inside
A splinter in mind
That you'll leave behindNow all your friends
Are losing sense of Everything that you've become
Everyone you've cut offIn your negligence you're forgetting us Everything that's been
The ones you say you loveYou'll lose it all, without a fight
Remember where you've come from You're dead wrong, forget it all
Hold on, just hold onYour choices affect me
You've lost your sensitivity
Don't lose hope
Hold onHave you ever wanted to be alone, without me
I've never imagined a day alone without you
I've been taught to worry only for myself
But now I'm left to see the fallout around me

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/