We the Generation (feat. Mahalia)

Rudimental

Lately I've been out of luck
Seems like I'm not good enough (no)
Maybe life's just really tough
I'm like a diamond in the roughI can see more clearly now (yeah x6)
I need you to trust me now (oh x6)
I want you to hear me out (yeah x6)
All we do is scream and shout (oh x6)We the generation, we have had enough (x4)Bet you think this is the end (oooh yeaah)
We don't wanna play pretend no
'Cause I'll make mistakes again
We'll put up our best defence.I can see more clearly now
I need you to trust me now
I want you to hear me out
All we do is scream and shoutWe the generation, we have had enough (x4)We're the generation...[Instrumental]We the generation, we have had enough (oh)You have had enough
I have had enough
We have had enoughWe the generation, we have had enough
