For a Dancer

Jackson Browne

Keep a fire burning in your eye
Pay attention to the open sky
You never know what will be coming down
I don't remember losing track of you
You were always dancing in and out of view

I must have thought you'd always be aroundAlways keeping things real by playing the clown Now you're nowhere to be foundI don't know what happens when people die

Can't seem to grasp it as hard as I try

It's like a song I can hear playing right in my ear

That I can't sing, I can't help listening

And I can't help feeling stupid standing 'round

Crying as they ease you down

'Cause I know that you'd rather we were dancing Dancing our sorrow away

(Right on dancing)

No matter what fate chooses to play

(There's nothing you can do about it anyway)Just do the steps that you've been shown

By everyone you've ever known

Until the dance becomes your very own

No matter how close to yours another's steps have grown

In the end there is one dance you'll do aloneKeep a fire for the human race

Let your prayers go drifting into space

You never know what will be coming down

Perhaps a better world is drawing near

And just as easily it could all disappear

Along with whatever meaning you might have foundDon't let the uncertainty turn you around (The world keeps turning around and around)

Go on and make a joyful soundInto a dancer you have grown from a seed somebody else has thrown Go on ahead and throw some seeds of your own

And somewhere between the time you arrive and the time you go May lie a reason you were alive but you'll never know
